From 5 October 2021, AIG Australia Limited (AIG) is required to have Target Market Determinations for its retail client insurance products in accordance with the Treasury Laws Amendment (Design and Distribution Obligations and Product Intervention Powers) Act 2019.

What is a TMD?

A TMD is a document created by AIG which seeks to offer customers, distributors and staff with an understanding of the class of customers for which the product has been designed and sets out:

- who is in the target market and who the product is not designed for;
- any distribution conditions and restrictions for the product;
- review periods and events that may trigger a review of the TMD; and
- reporting obligations for AIG's distributors.

The TMD is not intended and should not be treated as a full summary of the product's terms and conditions and is not intended to provide financial advice. Customers must refer to the Product Disclosure Statement (PDS) and any supplementary disclosure documents for the terms and conditions of the product when making a decision to acquire the product. TMD's for all AIG retail products are available on AIG's website at aig.com.au.

AIG is committed to offering high quality insurance products to meet our customer needs and which offer real value. AIG achieve this by taking a consumer-centric approach when designing and distributing our products.

Single Pay Plans or Monthly Pay Plans

For both single pay and monthly pay plans, your coverage is for a fixed period specified in your Plan Confirmation.

ADH coverage is limited to the benefits and subject to the terms, conditions and exclusions in Sections 3 and 4 of the Terms. ADH coverage applies to Covered Device.

ADH coverage applies to an operational or mechanical failure caused by an accident from handling that is the result of an unexpected and unintentional external event (e.g. drops and liquid contact from spills) that arises from Your normal daily usage of the Covered Device as intended for such Covered Device.

There are a number of coverage exclusions listed in section 4 of your AppleCare+ Terms and Conditions and which include the following:

ADH coverage does not include: (i) protection against normal wear and tear, theft, misplacement, reckless, abusive, willful or intentional conduct associated with handling and use of the Covered Device; (ii) protection against any other act or result not covered by the Plan, as set out in Section 3.1 of the Terms; or (iii) any resultant damage to the Covered Device that arises from one or more conditions described in (i) or (ii).

Benefits

If your Covered Equipment fails because of accidental damage from handling, Apple will, subject to the relevant service fee either (i) repair the defect using new or refurbished parts that are equivalent to new in performance and reliability, or (ii) exchange the Covered Equipment with a replacement product that is new or equivalent to new in performance and reliability (each, a "Service Event").

IMPORTANT: For Single Pay Plans and Monthly Pay Plans, Your Plan entitles you to two (2) Service Events within each twelve (12)-month period of continued coverage from your date of Plan purchase. Any unused Service Events will expire and you will get two (2) new Service Events within the next twelve (12)-month period of continued coverage until the end of Your Plan term. All other Plan benefits continue throughout.

Subject to the Reporting Requirements set out under above under the section headed Complimentary Cover, (found in the Cover available section above), for the Complimentary Cover, you are entitled to two (2) Service Events for ADH during the Complimentary Term.

Please Note: Each covered incident of ADH is considered a Service Event.

Costs Premiums

You are the beneficiary under the Master Policy and the cost of Your Plan includes the premium for the ADH coverage, which ranges between nine percent (9%) and sixteen percent (16%) of the cost of Your Plan.

Service fee

If You make a claim, You may be required to pay the relevant service fee to Apple as follows:

	Mac	Apple Display
Tier 1 ADH Service Event - Screen Only ADH Damage - External Enclosure-only ADH Damage	A$149	A$149
Tier 2 ADH Service Event - All Other ADH Damage	A$429	A$429

To qualify for the Tier 1 ADH Service Event fee, the Covered Equipment must have no additional damage beyond the screen-only damage (if applicable) or the external enclosure-only where such additional damage would prevent Apple from repairing the display or external enclosure. ADH damage to the Apple-branded stand and/or VESA mount used with your Apple-branded display will be treated as external enclosure-only ADH damage. A Covered Equipment with additional damage will be charged the price of the Tier 2 ADH Service Event fee.

How to make a claim

You must submit any claim to Apple. When You make a claim, You may be required to provide an explanation of where and when the accident occurred with a detailed description of the actual event. If Your claim is approved, You will have to pay the relevant service fee to Apple. Please see section 3.2 of the Terms for more details on how to make a claim.

Cooling off period

Once Your ADH coverage has commenced You have a 30-day cooling off period within which You may cancel the ADH coverage. To cancel Your ADH coverage during the cooling off period, please send Apple Your written request to cancel Your ADH coverage. You will receive a full refund less the value of any service provided or claims made under the Plan. However, if you elect not to be covered by ADH Coverage, you will need to cancel the entire Plan.
